Bid officer came by as well as the 911 dispatched officers and then another set of Entertainment area police officers who had me sign some papers. They went looking for him to get the fake gun and file a misdemeanor against him. I provided them with the photos you see here.

There was a commotion outside our office a bit ago and it was the Samuel Jackson impersonator. He was yelling at some construction workers sitting outside the office and pulled out a gun (fake) and aimed it at them. One of my co-workers thought it was real and freaked out. I called 911 and they said they would be on their way. It has been about 30 minutes and nothing. Then my co-worker called Hollywood Division and they proceeded to tell her to call the BID officers!! She did and they are not here either. He is gone now but in light of what is happening with the LAPD and the gun issue, they should have been here asap.

Please pass this on to Mitch.

Thanks,

Ana

LAPD should not be telling citizens to call the BID. This is a concern.

I will forward this to Steve and Joe. Am in Seattle right now

One guy showed up eventually and later the police came. It just took too long.
